Century Collection

CENTURY

The Century Collection isn't just furniture- it's a foundation for how people live, work, and collaborate. Century is a smart, stylish and modular solution for modern environments, from collaborative workspaces and hospitality lounges, to communal cafes, flexible learning spaces and beyond.

Century offers the freedom to design with style, comfort and productivity in mind. The collection includes seating with a modern metal frame and fully upholstered seats that blend seamlessly into any environment. Additionally, planters, soft seating, storage, and work surfaces can be incorporated to heighten flexibility and add a touch of biophilic design to any space.

Modular by Nature. Personal by Design.

Century is designed to adapt. For whatever space you're designing, this collection offers modular booth and soft seating options perfect for creating space that's uniquely yours.

More than a table. A platform for connection.

Dining and nesting tables in the Century Collection are refined, durable, and flexible. Designed to complement the flow of the space and the energy of the people using it, they seamlessly transition from morning coffee to late-night collaboration.

Nature, Nurtured.

Century's integrated planters bring a biophilic touch to any room, softening hard surfaces and improving wellbeing. They're not just accessories, they're part of the solution.
